The series begins with Light finding the Death Note, which was dropped in the human world by the死神 Ryuk. Ryuk explains to Light that the Death Note is a powerful weapon that can be used to kill anyone, regardless of their location or how well-protected they are. Light is initially hesitant to use the Death Note, but he eventually decides to use it to rid the world of criminals.

Light's actions soon attract the attention of the Japanese police, who begin to investigate the mysterious deaths of criminals. The police are led by L, a brilliant detective who is determined to catch the person responsible for the deaths. L suspects that Light is the one behind the deaths, and he sets out to prove it.

The series follows the cat-and-mouse game between Light and L as they try to outsmart each other. Light uses his intelligence and the Death Note to stay one step ahead of L, but L is always close behind. The series is full of suspense and intrigue, and it will keep you on the edge of your seat until the very end.
