

Ghost Walker: Dark Leopard People of Sea Haven: Shadow Standalone Novels Short

Emily Carter is a young woman who has always been sensitive to the supernatural. She can see ghosts, hear their whispers, and feel their presence. But she has never been able to control these abilities, and they have often been a source of fear and anxiety for her.

One day, Emily meets a mysterious man named Ethan. Ethan is a member of the Dark Leopard People of Sea Haven, a secret society of shape-shifters who protect the world from supernatural threats. Ethan senses Emily's abilities, and he takes her under his wing, teaching her how to control her powers and use them for good.

As Emily learns more about the Dark Leopard People and their mission, she begins to feel a sense of belonging that she has never felt before. She also finds herself falling in love with Ethan, but their love is forbidden. The Dark Leopard People have a strict rule against relationships with outsiders, and if their relationship is discovered, they will both be punished.

Emily and Ethan must find a way to be together, but they must also protect the secret of their love. They must also face the growing threat of a powerful supernatural force that is threatening to destroy Sea Haven.
