The Founder: Jose Luis Hinojosa

Jose Luis Hinojosa is a social activist and humanitarian who has dedicated his life to helping marginalized communities. Born in Mexico, Hinojosa witnessed firsthand the devastating impact of poverty and social injustice. In 1999, he moved to South Africa to volunteer in an orphanage, where he was profoundly moved by the plight of HIV-positive children.

Driven by an unwavering belief in the power of hope and possibility, Hinojosa established Nkosi Little Warriors in 2000. The organization's mission is to provide a safe haven, quality healthcare, and educational opportunities for orphaned and vulnerable children in South Africa, regardless of their HIV status.

A Comprehensive Approach to Care

Nkosi Little Warriors offers a comprehensive range of services to meet the multifaceted needs of the children it supports. These services include:

1. Medical Care: NLW provides access to specialized medical care, including antiretroviral therapy, nutritional support, and routine check-ups.
2. Psychosocial Support: Through individual counseling, play therapy, and support groups, NLW helps children process the trauma of losing parents or loved ones and cope with the challenges of living with HIV.
3. Education: NLW believes that education is key to empowering children. It provides access to quality education from pre-school to high school, ensuring that children have the tools they need to succeed in life.
4. Occupational Therapy: NLW provides occupational therapy services to help children develop their physical, cognitive, and social skills.
5. Vocational Training: NLW offers vocational training programs to prepare older children for employment and help them transition into adulthood.
6. Foster Care and Adoption: NLW provides foster care and adoption services to ensure that children have a safe and stable family environment.

Empowering Children Through Love and Leadership

Central to the Nkosi Little Warriors approach is a deep belief in the transformative power of love and leadership. The organization creates a nurturing and supportive environment where children feel valued and respected. Staff members are trained to provide compassionate care that fosters a sense of belonging and empowers children to reach their full potential.

Nkosi Little Warriors also cultivates leadership among the children it serves. Through youth-led clubs and initiatives, children are given opportunities to develop their skills, share their experiences, and advocate for their rights. This empowerment helps them develop resilience, build confidence, and become agents of change in their own lives and communities.

A Global Impact

Nkosi Little Warriors' work has gained international recognition for its innovative approach and measurable impact. The organization has been featured in numerous media outlets, including The New York Times, CNN, and BBC. NLW has also received awards and accolades from organizations such as UNICEF and the United Nations Development Program.

Nkosi Little Warriors' success has inspired similar initiatives in other countries around the world. By sharing its knowledge and expertise, NLW has helped establish sister organizations in India, Swaziland, and Zambia, expanding its reach and impact on the lives of orphaned and vulnerable children.

A Legacy of Hope

Nkosi Little Warriors has made a profound difference in the lives of countless children in South Africa and beyond. Through its comprehensive care and unwavering commitment to empowerment, NLW has provided a path to hope and a brighter future for those who need it most.

The organization's legacy will continue to inspire and empower generations to come. As Nkosi Little Warriors celebrates its 20th anniversary in 2020, it remains a shining beacon of hope, demonstrating the transformative power of love, compassion, and the belief in human potential.
