Review

The Schirmer Library of Classics, Volume 1436 is a great collection of piano solos by great composers. The pieces are all well-known and loved, and they are arranged in a progressive order of difficulty. This makes the volume a great resource for piano students of all levels. The pieces are also a great way to learn about the history of piano music. The volume includes pieces from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and Impressionist periods.

The Schirmer Library of Classics, Volume 1436 is a valuable resource for piano students and teachers. The pieces are all well-chosen and the arrangements are excellent. The volume is also a great way to learn about the history of piano music.
